SECTION 7 (1) (a) (v)Procedures to be followed when accessing a document from the Ministry of Local Government*How to request information:

- General Procedure

Our policy is to answer all requests, both oral and written, for information. However, in order to have the rights given to you under the Freedom of Information Act 1999 (FOIA) (e.g. the right to challenge a decision if your request for information is refused), you must make your request in writing. The applicant must, therefore, complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents) available from the General Administration Office or from our Designated Officer, for information that is not readily available to members of the public [see Section 7 (1) (a) (vii)].

- Addressing Requests

To facilitate prompt handling of your request, please address it (the request via appropriate form) to:

Mrs. Loris Romany
Designated Officer
Freedom of Information Act (1999)
Ministry of Local Government
General Administration
First Floor
Kent House
Maraval
 [See Section 7(1) (a) (vi) of the Act]

- Details in the Request

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If you are not sure how to write your request or what details to include, communicate with our Designated Officer.

- Requests not handled under FOIA

A request under the FOIA will not be processed, if what is asked for is information which is currently available in the public domain, either from this Ministry or from another public authority (e.g. brochures, pamphlets, reports etc.)

Time Limits

- General

The Freedom of Information Act sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days for accession of your request for access to documents. If we fail to meet this deadline, the FOIA gives you the right to proceed as though your request has been denied. We will try diligently to comply with the time limit. If it appears that processing your request may take longer than the statutory limit, we will acknowledge your request and advise you of its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed, or misdirected, you may wish to call or write to confirm that we have received the request and to ascertain its status.

- Time Allowed

We will determine whether to grant your request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than thirty (30) days as required by Section 15 of the FOIA.

RESPONDING TO YOUR REQUEST

- Retrieving Documents

The Ministry is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in our possession or we can retrieve them from storage.

- Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information we have in our possession, custody or power. We are required to furnish only one copy of a document. If we cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, we may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply. Extra copies will be provided at the cost of production.

Please note that we are not compelled to do the following:

- (a) Create new documents.
- (b) Perform research for you.
