Function and structure of the Regulated Industries Commission

Mission statement:

The Mission Statement of the Regulated Industries Commission is to:

To ensure promotion of the highest quality of utility services at fair and reasonable rates while building a credible regulatory regime that responds adequately to stakeholders’ concerns and also ensure fairness, transparency and equity in the provision of utility services throughout the country.

The RIC is a statutory body established by Act No. 26 of 1998 (“the RIC Act”) to regulate and monitor the operations of the service providers named in the RIC Act. The RIC replaced the Public Utilities Commission (“PUC”) whose jurisdiction was issued under the PUC Act Chap 34:01, which was repealed under the RIC Act. The service providers that presently fall under the purview of the RIC Act include:

- The Water and Sewerage Authority (“WASA”)
- The Trinidad and Tobago Electricity Commission (“T&TEC”)
- The Power Generation Company of Trinidad and Tobago (“PowerGen”)
- Trinity Power Limited (formerly InnCogen Limited).

The Commission consists of a Chairman, Deputy Chairman and at least three (3) other members. The total composition of the Commission shall not consist of less than five (5) or more than seven (7) members, appointed by the President for a maximum of five (5) years in each case. The RIC Act also provides for an Executive Director, who is presently contracted for two (2) years.

The RIC Act makes provision for the establishment of Consumer Services Committees, members of which are appointed by the Minister and will consist of a Chairman, a representative nominated by the Tobago House of Assembly and three (3) other members who will serve as consumer advocates. Such committees will advise the Commission on matters related to quality of service delivered and ensure that complaints procedures of service providers produce speedy resolutions for consumers. They may also be required to contribute to deliberations of the Commission where rates and licence conditions come under review.

The role of the Commission has been expanded under the RIC Act to include:

- Making Recommendations to the Minister on the awarding of licences.
- Monitoring and enforcing compliance with licence conditions and imposing penalties for non-compliance.
- Prescribing and monitoring standards of services.
- Establishing the principles on which tariffs will be based and conducting periodic reviews of rates.
- Conducting studies of efficiency and economy of operation and performance by service providers.
- Investigating consumer complaints and facilitating relief in respect of rates, billing and unsatisfactory service.
- Facilitating competition among service providers, where desirable.
- Collection of Licence fees.

The functions of the Commission are discharged with the assistance of the thirty–five (35) members of staff employed at the office of the Commission. Staff serves as a support arm of the Commission by functioning in furtherance to the mandate of the Commission. See organizational structure of the Commission at the end of this Statement.

The office of the Commission is located on the 1st and 3rd Floors, Furness House, Corner of Wrightson Road and Independence Square, Port-of-Spain.

Effect of Functions on Members of the Public

Through the operations of the RIC, the public's interest is protected by the Commission ensuring:

- Equal access by consumers to service, and the fair treatment of consumers and service providers who are similarly placed
