
Fifth Session Tenth Parliament Republic of Trinidad and Tobago

REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

Act No. 15 of 2014

[L.S.]

AN ACT to amend the Proceeds of Crime Act,
Chap. 11:27, the Anti-Terrorism Act,
Chap. 12:07 and the Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago Act, Chap. 72:01

[Assented to 13th October, 2014]

WHEREAS it is enacted by section 13(1) of the ^{Preamble} Constitution, that an Act of Parliament to which that section applies may expressly declare that it shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution and, if any Act does so declare, it shall have effect accordingly:

And whereas it is provided in section 13(2) of the Constitution that an Act of Parliament to which that section applies is one the Bill for which has been passed by both Houses of Parliament and at the final vote thereon in each House has been supported by the votes of not less than three-fifths of all the members of that House:

And whereas it is necessary and expedient that the provisions of this Act shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution:

Enactment

ENACTED by the Parliament of Trinidad and Tobago as follows:

commits an offence of money laundering.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a financial institution or listed business knows or has grounds to suspect that the property is criminal property, if it or he fails to take reasonable steps to implement or apply procedures to control or combat money laundering in accordance with the Regulations made pursuant to section 56.

(3) Where a person is charged with an offence under this section and the Court is satisfied that the property in his possession or under his control was not acquired from income derived from a legitimate source, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proven, that the property is criminal property.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the standard of proof required by the person referred to in that subsection, shall be that applicable in civil proceedings.

Defence to charge of money laundering

46. (1) It is a defence to a charge of money laundering that the accused acquired or otherwise came into possession of the property for adequate consideration and had no knowledge that the property was criminal property.

(2) For the purposes of this section—

(a) a person acquires property for adequate consideration if the value of the consideration is not significantly less than the value of the property; or

(b) a person uses or has possession of property for a d e q u a t e consideration if the value of the consideration is not significantly less than the value of the use or possession.

(3) The provision of goods and services to any person which are of assistance to him in the course of engaging in criminal conduct shall not be treated as consideration for the purposes of subsection (1).”;

(g) in section 47—

- (i) in subsection (1), by deleting the words “a specified offence” and substituting the words “criminal conduct”; and
- (ii) by inserting after subsection (3), the following new subsection:

“ (4) This section also applies where a person discloses to the FIU in the form of a suspicious transaction or activity report
his knowledge or suspicion that the property is criminal property, in whole or in part,
directly or indirectly.”;

(h) in section 50—

 - (ii) by repealing subsections (2)(b), (3), (3A), (3B), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (11) and (12); and
 - (iii) in section 3C, by deleting the words “ninety-five” and substituting the word “ninety”;

(m) by inserting after section 55, the following new sections:

“Reporting suspicious activity and transactions” 55A. (1) Where a financial institution or listed business knows or has reasonable grounds to suspect that funds being used for the purpose of a transaction to which subsection (2) refers are the proceeds of criminal conduct, the financial institution or listed business shall make a suspicious transaction or a suspicious activity report to the FIU in the form approved by the FIU.

(2) Where a financial institution or listed business makes a suspicious transaction or suspicious activity report to the FIU under this section, the Director or staff of such financial institution or listed business shall not disclose the fact or content of such report to any person, and any person who contravenes this subsection commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five million dollars and imprisonment for five years.

(3) A report to which subsection (1) refers shall be made as soon as possible, but in any event, within fourteen days of the date on which the financial institution or listed business knew or had reasonable grounds to suspect that the funds used for a transaction were the proceeds of criminal conduct.

Exemption
from liability

55B. When the report referred to in section 55A is made in good faith, the financial institution or listed business and their employees, staff, directors, owners or other representatives as authorised by law, shall be exempted from criminal, civil or administrative liability, as the case may be, for complying with this section or for breach of any restriction on disclosure of information imposed by contract or by any legislative, regulatory or administrative provision, regardless of the result of the communication.

Compliance programme

55C. (1) Every financial institution or listed business shall develop and implement a written compliance programme, approved by the financial institution's or listed business' senior management and reasonably designed to ensure compliance with this Act.

(2) A compliance programme referred to in subsection (1) shall include—

- (a) a system of internal controls to ensure ongoing compliance;
- (b) internal or external independent testing for compliance;
- (c) training of personnel in the identification of suspicious transactions; and

(d) appointment of a staff member responsible for continual compliance with the Act and the Regulations.

(3) For the purposes of this section, “senior management” in relation to a financial institution means the body responsible for directing or overseeing the performance of the financial institution.

Supervisory Authority may enter premises

55D. (1) The relevant Supervisory Authority or a person authorized by the relevant Supervisory Authority may enter into the premises of any financial institution or listed business during working hours in order to—

(a) inspect any business transaction record or client information record kept by the financial institution or listed business pursuant to this Act and the Regulations made thereunder and ask any questions relevant to such record and to make any notes or take any copies of the whole or any part of any such record;

(b) determine whether a compliance programme has been implemented; and

(c) determine whether there is compliance with this Act or any Rules or Regulations made thereunder.

(2) Where the Supervisory Authority is the FIU, the FIU shall obtain the consent of the owner or occupier of the premises for the entry.

(3) Where the listed business refuses to give consent under subsection (2), a police officer above the rank of sergeant may apply for a warrant to enter the premises accompanied by an officer of the FIU.

(4) For the purposes of this section, “Supervisory Authority”, in relation to—

(a) a financial institution licensed under the Financial Institutions Act, the Insurance Act, the Exchange Control Act, the Home Mortgage Bank established under the Home Mortgage Bank Act, the Agricultural Development Bank established under the
