MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS (LICENSING COMMITTEE)
BILL, 2014

Explanatory Note

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

Clause 1 of the Bill would provide the short title of the Bill.

Clause 2 of the Bill would amend the Liquor Licences Act, Chap. 84:10, inter alia—

- (i) by repealing section 5(1) of the Act and substituting a new section 5(1) to provide for the constitution of licensing committees and to impose a duty on members of licensing committees to declare possible or perceived conflicts of interest in respect of applications and to withdraw from considering applications where conflicts of interest arise;
- (ii) by repealing section 7 of the Act and substituting a new section providing for the Clerk of the Peace to assign a public officer to perform the duties of the Secretary of the licensing committee;
- (iii) by inserting, in section 21, two new subsections, (3A) and (3B), setting out the procedure to be adopted when there is an objection to the grant or renewal of a licence;
- (iv) by repealing subsection (1) of section 21A and substituting a new subsection (1) to provide that a Magistrate may, upon complaint in writing being made, suspend or revoke a licence for discrimination;
- (v) by repealing subsection (1) of section 21C and substituting a new subsection (1) providing that a Magistrate may, upon complaint in writing being made, suspend or revoke a licence for causing a public annoyance because of excessive noise;
- (vi) in section 22, by removing the requirement for appeals from decisions of licensing committees to be made to the Court of Appeal and providing instead for reviews of such decisions to be made by the Magistrate;
- (vii) by inserting a new section 22A providing that a person aggrieved by an order of a Magistrate under section 22 may appeal from the decision to the Court of Appeal;

- (viii) in section 29, by increasing the penalty for falsely pretending to be the person applying for a licence from one thousand dollars to five thousand dollars;
- (ix) in section 35(9), by increasing the penalty for selling certain spirits of a lower strength than 40 per cent A/c./Vol. from one thousand dollars to five thousand dollars;
- (x) in section 44(3), by increasing the penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of an occasional licence or to carry out the conditions in section 44(1) from two thousand dollars to three thousand dollars;
- (xi) in section 48, by increasing the penalty for selling intoxicating liquor;
- (xii) in section 49, by increasing the penalty for the unlawful purchase of spirits from two thousand dollars to four thousand dollars;
- (xiii) in section 50, by increasing the penalty for unlawful receipt of spirits from four thousand dollars to five thousand dollars;
- (xiv) in section 53, by increasing the penalty for offences in respect of stock and certificate books from four thousand dollars to five thousand dollars;
- (xv) in section 54(1), by increasing the penalty for the removal of spirits from four thousand dollars to five thousand dollars;
- (xvi) in section 55(1), (2) and (3), by increasing the penalty for the fraudulent use of certificates from four thousand dollars to five thousand dollars;
- (xvii) in section 56(2), by increasing the penalty for failure to comply with the requirement to cancel the permit or certificate received along with spirits from one thousand dollars to three thousand dollars;
- (xviii) in section 57(2), by increasing the penalty for failure to maintain a register of persons lodging at a hotel from two hundred dollars to one thousand dollars and in section 57(3), by increasing the penalty for failure to produce or for making a false entry in a register from one thousand dollars to three thousand dollars;
- (xix) in section 58, by increasing the penalty for gambling in any premises, licensed under the Act for sale of intoxicating liquor by retail, from four hundred dollars to one thousand dollars;

- (xx) in section 59(2), by increasing the penalty for use or possession of certain substances from one thousand dollars to five thousand dollars;
- (xxi) in section 60(1) and (2), by increasing the penalty for the sale of intoxicating liquor to children;
- (xxii) in section 61 by increasing the penalty for permitting disorder on premises from four hundred dollars to one thousand dollars;
- (xxiii) in section 62(2), by increasing the penalty for failing or refusing to quit premises where requested to do so from one hundred dollars to two thousand dollars;
- (xxiv) in section 64, by increasing the penalty for contravening that provision from two thousand dollars to five thousand dollars;
- (xxv) in section 66, by increasing the penalty for obstructing an Officer in the inspection of premises from four hundred dollars to one thousand dollars;
- (xxvi) in section 67(2), by increasing the penalty for keeping intoxicating liquor for sale without a licence from two thousand dollars to five thousand dollars;

[, 2014]

ENACTED by the Parliament of Trinidad and Tobago as Enactment follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Short title Miscellaneous Provisions (Licensing Committee) Act, 2014.

2. The Liquor Licences Act is amended—

(a) by repealing section 5 and substituting the following section:

“Constitution
of licensing

5. (1) There shall be a licensing committee for each magisterial district which shall consist of the following members:

(a) the Clerk of the Peace or, where more than one Clerk of the Peace is assigned to a Magisterial District, a Clerk of the Peace designated by the Chief Magistrate;

(b) one person, or his alternate, nominated by—

(i) the Tobago House of Assembly, in the case of Tobago; or

(ii) the Municipal Corporation of the municipality in which the magistrate’s court is located; and

(c) one person, or his alternate, nominated by the local business associations within the magisterial district;

(2) Whenever a committee sits for the transaction of business, the Clerk of the Peace shall be the Chairman.

(3) Two members of a licensing committee shall constitute a quorum.

(4) A member of a licensing committee shall declare any possible or perceived conflict of interest in respect of an application before the committee, and the member shall—

(a) in the case of the Chairman, withdraw from considering the application and the other members present at that meeting shall elect a chairman for the purposes of the application; and

(b) in the case of any other member, withdraw from considering the application and be replaced by his alternate.

(5) For the purpose of subsection (4), a conflict of interest is deemed to arise if a member of a licensing committee makes or participates in the making of a decision if he knows or ought reasonably to know, that in the making of the decision, there was an opportunity either directly or indirectly to further his private interests or that of a member of his family or of any other person.

(5) In the event that the Chairman is absent from a meeting of a licensing committee, the other members present at that meeting shall elect one of their members to act as Chairman.”;
