“PART VA

RED-LIGHT CAMERA SYSTEM

Definitions 79A. For the purposes of this Part—

“citation notice” means the Notice approved by the Authority under section 79G;

Chap. 4:20 “Clerk” has the meaning assigned by the Summary Courts Act;

“Court” has the meaning assigned by the Summary Courts Act;

“fixed penalty” means the penalty prescribed under section 84;

“Inspection Officer” means a constable, Transport Officer or Traffic Warden certified by the Commissioner of Police as trained to analyse and certify the authenticity of photographic images or video recordings obtained with a red-light camera;

“notice to contest” means a Notice requesting a hearing by a Court in respect of a traffic violation indicating that the owner wishes to contest responsibility for the payment of a fixed penalty as stated in the Citation Notice;

“red-light camera” means an electronic device, approved by the Minister under section 79B, for the purpose of capturing and producing photographic images and video recordings of traffic violations committed under section 66A.

Installation of red-light camera 79B. (1) The Licensing Authority may cause or permit a red-light camera to be installed on, or near any traffic light signal.

(2) The Minister may by Order approve the red-light camera for the purposes of this Part.

Unlawful interference 79C. A person who unlawfully interferes with a red-light camera or its proper functioning commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars.

Owner deemed responsible

79D. (1) For the purposes of this Part, where a red-light camera captures a photographic image or video recording of a motor vehicle that fails to comply with the indication given by a red light of a traffic light signal in contravention of section 66A, the owner of the motor vehicle involved in the traffic violation shall be responsible for ensuring the payment of the fixed penalty stipulated in the citation notice served under section 79H.

(2) Where there is more than one owner of the motor vehicle referred to in subsection (1), the owners shall be jointly responsible for ensuring the payment of the fixed penalty.

(3) Where an owner pays a fixed penalty under this Part, he may recover the sums paid from the person who was driving the motor vehicle at the time the photographic image or video recording referred to in subsection (1) was captured.

Photographic image or video recording captured by red-light camera
system

79E. A photographic image or video recording of a motor vehicle captured by a red-light camera shall be evidence—

- (a) that the motor vehicle was used in the commission of a traffic violation under section 66A; and
- (b) that the information shown on the photographic image or video recording is a true and accurate record of the registration number of the motor vehicle used in the commission of the traffic violation.

Preparation of citation notice

79F. (1) Where a red-light camera captures a photographic image or video recording of the commission of a traffic violation under section 66A, an Inspection Officer shall, within thirty days of the commission of the traffic violation, prepare a citation notice to be served on each owner of the motor vehicle involved in the commission of the traffic violation.

(2) The citation notice prepared under subsection (1) shall state that the owner has the option of either—

- (a) paying the stipulated fixed penalty for the traffic violation, within the time specified in the citation notice; or
- (b) filing a notice to contest within the time specified in the citation notice in accordance with section 79J.

Form of citation
notice

79G. A citation notice prepared under section 79F shall be in the form approved by the Licensing Authority and published in the Gazette, and shall include—

- (a) the date, time and place of the traffic violation;
- (b) the section of the written law creating the traffic violation and such particulars of the traffic violation as are required for proceedings under the Summary Courts Act;
- (c) the photographic image showing the commission of the traffic violation and the registration number of the motor vehicle involved in the commission of the traffic violation;

- (d) the certificate of the Inspection Officer;
- (e) the fixed penalty that is to be paid;
- (f) the payee to whom the fixed penalty may be paid;
- (g) the time specified within which the fixed penalty may be paid in accordance with section 79I(1);
- (h) that the owner may file a notice to contest in accordance with section 79J; and
- (i) the date, time and address of the Court at which the owner is required to appear in the event of filing a notice to contest in accordance with section 79J.

Service of citation
notice

79H. (1) A citation notice prepared under section 79F shall be served on each owner of a motor vehicle involved in a traffic violation under section 66A—

- (a) by delivering it to each owner or some adult at his usual or last known place of residence or any address furnished by him to the Licensing Authority;
- (b) by leaving it or affixing it at the usual or last known place of residence or place of business of the owner or at any address furnished by him to the Licensing Authority in a cover, addressed to him; or
- (c) by sending it by way of normal post or registered post to the owner at his usual or last known place of residence or business or any other address furnished by him to the Licensing Authority.

(2) In the case of a citation notice to be served on an owner whose usual or last known place of residence cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, service may be effected by means of publication in at least one newspaper in daily circulation in Trinidad and Tobago or electronic transmission through e-mail.

(3) Service of a citation notice under this section is deemed to be effected on the owner on the eighth day following the date on which the notice is delivered, left, affixed, published, or electronically transmitted.

Payment of fixed penalty

79I. (1) Where service of a citation notice has been effected in accordance with section 79H, the owner of the motor vehicle shall, unless he files a notice of contest, pay the fixed penalty within forty-five days from the deemed date of service under section 79H(3) of the citation notice or such longer period as the Minister may prescribe by Order.

(2) Payment of a fixed penalty under this section shall be—

- (a) accompanied by the citation notice served under section 79H; and
- (b) paid to a payee prescribed by the Minister under section 88D.

(3) Where the fixed penalty is duly paid in accordance with the citation notice, no person shall be liable to any sanction for the traffic violation in respect of which the citation notice was served.

Filing of notice to contest

79J. (1) Where an owner of a motor vehicle is served with a citation notice under section 79H for a traffic violation and is desirous of contesting the traffic violation in the citation notice, the owner may file a notice to contest with a payee prescribed by the Minister under section 88D within thirty days from the deemed date of service of the citation notice.

(2) An owner may file a notice to contest on the grounds that at the time the traffic violation was committed—

- (a) the motor vehicle was stolen; or
- (b) he is no longer the owner having duly registered a change of possession of the motor vehicle in accordance with section 19(1).

(3) Notwithstanding the filing of a notice to contest under subsection (1), an owner shall be permitted to pay the fixed penalty specified in the citation notice in accordance with section 79I and the matter shall be removed from the list of hearing at the Court.

Proceedings
for traffic violation under section 66A

79K. Proceedings in respect of a traffic violation under section 66A, for which a citation notice was served, shall not be listed for trial in Court unless—

- (a) a notice to contest has been filed by the owner of the motor vehicle within thirty days from the deemed date of service of the citation notice in accordance with section 79J; and
- (b) a period of three months has elapsed from the last day on which the fixed penalty is payable and there is no record that the fixed penalty was paid in accordance with section 79I.

Transmission
of documents
to Court

79L. Where an owner has filed a notice to contest, the Inspection Officer shall transmit to the Clerk, in the district in which the traffic violation occurred, a certified copy of—

- (a) the citation notice;
- (b) the notice to contest;
- (c) the photographic image or video recording of the motor vehicle captured by the red-light camera in relation to the traffic violation; and
- (d) proof of service of the citation notice.

Certificate of Inspection Officer

79M. In proceedings for a traffic violation under this Part, a certificate on the citation notice signed by an Inspection Officer which states that—

- (a) he is certified by the Commissioner of Police as trained to analyse the information captured by a red-light camera;
- (b) the red-light camera used to capture the photographic image or video recording was approved by the Minister;
- (c) the photographic image or video recording captured by the red-light camera was obtained on the date and time stated therein;
- (d) the red-light camera was operating accurately at the time the photographic image or video recording was captured; and

- (e) the contents of the information shown on the photographic image or video recording are true and correct, is prima facie evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

Certificate of Commissioner of Police

79N. In proceedings for a traffic violation under this Part, where the credential of an Inspection Officer is reasonably brought into question, the Court may authorise the submission of a certificate purporting to be signed by the Commissioner of Police that the Inspection Officer named therein is qualified to operate and analyse a red-light camera, and the certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the particulars specified in, and by the certificate.

Evidence of condition of

79O. In proceedings for a traffic violation under this Part, evidence of the condition of the red-light camera or the manner in which it was operated shall not be required unless evidence that it was not in proper condition or was not properly operated at the time of the traffic violation has been adduced.

No complainant in proceedings

79P. (1) In proceedings for a traffic violation under this Part, the information that is sent to the Court under section 79L shall be sufficient evidence to call upon the person charged to answer.

(2) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, in proceedings for a traffic violation under this Part, the Court shall not require the presence of a complainant, but this shall not debar the person in receipt of the citation notice from summoning any person in his defence.

Magistrate to proceed ex parte where owner is absent

79Q. Notwithstanding section 44 of the Summary Courts Act, where an owner who files a notice to contest does not appear before the Court at the date, time and address specified in the citation notice, the Magistrate shall not issue a warrant for the arrest of the owner, but may proceed ex parte to the hearing of the matter, and adjudicate thereon as fully and effectually as if the owner had personally appeared before the Court.

Non-payment of fixed penalty and failure to file notice to contest

79R. (1) Where an owner does not pay the fixed penalty and does not file a notice to contest, in accordance with this Act, he shall be liable to pay, to a payee, the fixed penalty plus one-quarter of the amount of that fixed penalty.

(2) Where an owner does not pay the sum required under subsection (1) within fourteen days of the date on which it became payable, he shall be liable to pay the fixed penalty plus one-half of the amount of the fixed penalty.

(3) Where an owner fails to pay the required sums in accordance with this section, the Licensing Authority may suspend the driving permit of the owner or cease all transactions in relation to the motor vehicle which was involved in the commission of the traffic violation or with the owner of the said motor vehicle.

Notice to owner of possible
sanctions

79S. Where section 79R of the Act becomes applicable, the Licensing Authority shall issue a notice, in writing, to the owner indicating that—

- (a) the fixed penalty specified in the citation notice was not paid;
- (b) a notice to contest in respect of the traffic violation was not filed;
- (c) the sum stated in section 79R(a) has become due for payment;
- (d) it intends to impose the sanction specified at section 79R(3), which would be lifted upon the payment of the applicable penalty; and
- (e) he has fourteen days, from the date of receipt of the notice, to show cause, in writing, why the Licensing Authority should not impose the intended sanctions.

Imposition of sanctions by Licensing
Authority

79T. (1) An owner may show cause, as stated in section 79S, why the Licensing Authority should not impose the sanctions specified in section 79R(3).

(2) After consideration of representations made by an owner pursuant to subsection (1), the Licensing Authority may impose any combination of sanctions specified in section 79R(3), or decline to impose any sanctions and require the owner to pay the applicable sum due under section 79R.

(3) The Licensing Authority shall inform the owner of its decision, in writing, as soon as possible.

Part VI repealed and Parts VI and VIA inserted

(4) The Licensing Authority shall immediately lift any sanction imposed under this section upon the payment of the applicable sum specified in section 79R.”.

35. The Act is amended by repealing Part VI and substituting the following new Parts:

- (g) that the person may contest the fixed penalty notice by filing a notice to contest in accordance with section 85; and
- (h) the date, time and address of the Court at which the person is required to appear in the event of filing a notice to contest in accordance with section 85.

(2) A notice under this Part shall be in the form approved by the Licensing Authority and published in the Gazette.

Payment of
fixed penalty

83. (1) Where a fixed penalty notice has been issued or affixed under section 81, the driver or owner of the vehicle, as the case may be, shall, unless he files a notice to contest, pay the fixed penalty within thirty days from the date that the fixed penalty notice was issued or affixed, or such longer period as the Minister may by Order prescribe.

(2) Subject to section 88K, where a fixed penalty is paid in accordance with a fixed penalty notice, a person shall not be liable to any sanction for the traffic violation in respect of which the fixed penalty notice was issued or affixed.

(3) Payment of a fixed penalty under subsection (1) shall be—

- (a) accompanied by the fixed penalty notice issued under section 81; and

(b) paid to a payee as prescribed by the Minister under section 88D.

Amount of fixed penalty

84. The fixed penalty for a traffic violation shall be the amount specified in the Third Column of the Ninth Schedule.

Notice to contest to be filed

85. (1) Where a person is desirous of contesting a fixed penalty notice, he shall file a notice to contest with a payee within fifteen days from the date that the fixed penalty notice was issued or affixed.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person may at any time within the period specified in the fixed penalty notice for the payment of the fixed penalty pay the fixed penalty in accordance with section 83 and the matter shall be removed from the list of hearing at the Court.

Transmission
of documents
to Court

86. Where a notice to contest has been filed, the constable shall immediately transmit to the Clerk, in the district in which the traffic violation is alleged to have been committed, a copy of the fixed penalty notice.

Listing of proceedings in respect of fixed penalty
notice

87. Proceedings in respect of a traffic violation for which a fixed penalty notice was issued or affixed shall not be listed for trial in Court unless—

(a) a notice to contest has been filed in accordance with section 85 within fifteen days from the date that the fixed penalty notice was issued or affixed; and

(b) a period of two months has elapsed from the last day on which the fixed penalty is payable and there is no record that the fixed penalty was paid in accordance with section 83.

Temporary suspension of permit pending determination of charge

87A. (1) Where any person is charged with manslaughter or offence committed by use of a motor vehicle as a weapon or with contravening the provisions of section 70 or section 71, it shall be lawful for the Licensing Authority to order the suspension of the driving permit of the person so charged pending the determination of the charge.

(2) Any such permit so suspended under subsection (1) shall be surrendered to the Clerk of the Court before which the person so charged is to appear.

(3) Where the Court makes an Order for suspension of a person's driving permit this Order shall be reviewed on every occasion that the matter is listed.

Appearance of parties in proceedings
where notice to contest was filed

88. (1) Where a notice to contest is filed within the period specified in the fixed penalty notice, the constable who issued or affixed the fixed penalty notice shall be notified and shall be required to attend Court on the date, time and address of the Court as specified in the fixed penalty notice.

(2) Notwithstanding section 44 of the Summary Courts Act, where a person files a notice to contest and does not appear before the Court on the date and time specified in the fixed penalty notice, the Magistrate shall not issue a warrant for the arrest of the person but may proceed ex parte to hear the matter and adjudicate thereon as fully and effectually as if the person had personally appeared before the Court.

Non-payment of fixed penalty and failure to file notice to contest

88A. (1) Where a fixed penalty notice was issued or affixed and the driver or owner, as the case may be, does not pay the fixed penalty and does not file a notice to contest, in accordance with this Act—

- (a) he shall be liable to pay to a payee, the fixed penalty plus one-quarter of the amount of that fixed penalty; and
- (b) the applicable number of demerit points for the traffic violation shall be recorded against his driving permit record.

(2) Where the driver or owner, as the case may be, does not pay the sum required under subsection (1) within fourteen days of the date on which it became payable, he shall be liable to pay the fixed penalty plus one-half of the amount of the fixed penalty.

(3) Where the driver or owner, as the case may be, fails to pay the required sums in accordance with this section, the Licensing Authority may suspend the driving permit of the driver or owner, as the case may be, or cease all transactions in relation to the motor vehicle which was involved in the commission of the traffic violation or with the driver or owner of the said motor vehicle, as the case may be.

Notice to driver or
possible
sanctions

88B. (1) Where section 88A of the Act becomes applicable, the Licensing Authority shall issue a notice, in writing, to the driver or owner, as the case may be, indicating that—

- (a) the fixed penalty specified in the fixed penalty notice was not paid;

- (b) a notice to contest in respect of the traffic violation was not filed;
- (c) the applicable number of demerit points for the traffic violation, as specified in the Fourth Column of the Ninth Schedule was recorded against his driving permit;
- (d) the sum stated in section 88A(1)(a) has become due for payment;
- (e) it intends to impose the sanctions specified at section 88A(3), which would be lifted upon the payment of the applicable penalty; and
- (f) he has fourteen days, from the date of receipt of the notice, to show cause, in writing, why the Licensing Authority should not impose the intended sanctions.

Imposition of sanctions by Licensing
Authority

88C. (1) A driver or owner, as the case may be, may show cause, as stated in section 88B, why the Licensing Authority should not impose the sanctions specified in section 88A(3).

(2) After consideration of representations made by the driver or owner, as the case may be, pursuant to subsection (1), the Licensing Authority may impose any combination of sanctions specified in section 88A(3), or decline to impose any sanctions and require the driver to pay the applicable sum due under section 88A.

(3) The Licensing Authority shall inform the driver or owner, as the case may be, of its decision, in writing, as soon as possible.

(4) The Licensing Authority shall immediately lift any sanction imposed under this section upon the payment of the applicable sum specified in section 88A.

Minister may by Order prescribe fixed penalty traffic violations

88D. (1) The Minister may from time to time by Order—

- (a) add any traffic violation to the Ninth Schedule and prescribe in respect of that traffic violation a fixed penalty not exceeding seventy-five per cent of the fine prescribed for the traffic violation;
- (b) remove any traffic violation from the Ninth Schedule;
- (c) alter the fixed penalty for any traffic violation listed in the Ninth Schedule to an extent that the fixed penalty as altered does not exceed seventy-five per cent of the fine prescribed for the traffic violation;
- (d) add, alter or remove the number of demerit points in respect of any traffic violation;
- (e) prescribe the methods and payees for payment of a fixed penalty; and
- (f) add to, or remove from the Eighth Schedule the name of any Corporation or public body.

(2) An Order made under subsection (1) shall be subject to negative resolution of Parliament.

PART VIA
 LEGAL PROCEEDINGS, DEMERIT POINTS, SUSPENSION AND CANCELLATION OF DRIVING PERMITS

Power to convict for reckless or dangerous driving on trial for manslaughter

88E. Upon the trial of a person who is indicted for manslaughter in connection with the driving of a motor vehicle by him, it shall be lawful for the jury, if they are satisfied that he is guilty of an offence under section 71, to find him guilty of that offence, whether or not the requirements of section 73 have been satisfied as respects that offence.

Power to proceed on charge for careless driving on hearing of charge under section 70 or 71A

88F. (1) Where a person is charged with an offence under section 70 or section 71A and the Court determines that the offence is not proved, then, at any time during the hearing or immediately thereafter, the Court may, without prejudice to any other direction or order that may be made, direct or allow a charge for an offence under section 72 to be preferred against the defendant and may thereupon proceed with that charge.

(2) A defendant under subsection (1) or his Attorney-at-law shall be informed of the new charge and be given an opportunity, whether by way of cross-examining any witness whose evidence has already been given against the defendant or otherwise, of answering the new charge, and the Court shall, if it considers that the defendant is prejudiced in his defence by reason of the new charge being preferred, adjourn the hearing.

Power of Court to require a suspended permit be produced

88G. (1) Where a person is convicted of an offence under section 70, 70A, 71, or 71A and an order has been imposed for the disqualification of the person from holding or obtaining a driving permit for a stated period or permanently and where the person holds a driving permit, the Court before which the person is convicted shall require him to produce the permit and upon the making of an order of disqualification, shall forfeit the permit and return it to the Licensing Authority.

(2) A person who is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driving permit under subsection (1) may, after the expiration of six months from the date of the disqualification, apply to the Court by which he was disqualified to remove the disqualification.

(3) Where an application for removal of the disqualification from holding or obtaining a driving permit is made under subsection (2) the Court may, as it thinks proper, having regard to the character of the person disqualified and his conduct subsequent to the disqualification, the nature of the offence and any other circumstances of the case, either by order, remove the disqualification as from the date specified in the order or refuse the application.

(4) Where an application is refused under this section a further application shall not be made within six months from the date of the refusal.

(5) Particulars of a conviction or disqualification or of the removal of a disqualification under this Act shall be furnished to the Transport Commissioner.

(6) The costs of any application referred to in this section may be borne in whole or in part by the applicant, as the Court may order.

(7) In this section, “driving permit” includes a provisional permit.

Right of appeal

88H. A person who, by virtue of an order of a Court under section 88F is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driving permit may appeal against the order in the same manner as against a conviction, and the Court may, if it thinks fit, pending the appeal, suspend the operation of the order.

Production of offender's Record of Conviction

88I. Where a person who holds a driving permit is convicted of an offence under section 70, 70A, 71, or 71A, the Court may in order to impose an appropriate penalty, require the Transport Commissioner to produce for its inspection the offender's Record of Conviction.

Establishment of Demerit
Points
Register

88J. (1) The Licensing Authority shall, for the purpose of administering demerit points, establish and maintain a register to be known as “the Demerit Points Register”.

(2) All demerit points recorded against the driving permit record of a person for an offence or a traffic violation shall be duly recorded by the Licensing Authority in the Demerit Points Register.

(3) The contents of the Demerit Points Register shall, for the purposes of all proceedings in a Court, be prima facie evidence of all information contained therein and extracts of the Demerit Points Register purporting to be certified as such by the Transport Commissioner, shall be admissible in evidence in Court.

Demerit
points

88K. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a person is convicted for an offence or a traffic violation listed in the First Column of the Ninth Schedule that carries demerit points, the demerit points as prescribed in the Fourth Column in the Ninth Schedule for that offence or traffic violation shall be recorded against the driving permit record of the person so convicted.

(2) Where a person appeals against conviction under subsection (1), no demerit points shall be recorded against the driving permit record of the person unless the conviction is confirmed on appeal.

(3) Where a fixed penalty notice is issued under section 81 for a traffic violation that carries demerit points—

- (a) the fixed penalty for the traffic violation is paid in accordance with the requirements of the fixed penalty notice; or
- (b) the time specified for the payment of the fixed penalty has expired and a notice to contest was not filed by the driver or owner within the specified time, the number of demerit points as prescribed in the Fourth Column of the Ninth Schedule for the traffic violation shall be recorded against the driving permit record of the person.

Simultaneous traffic violations

88L. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a person is charged with more than one traffic violation or served with more than one fixed penalty notice for traffic violations that carry demerit points and those traffic violations arise out of one incident and that person—

- (a) is convicted of two or more of the traffic violations for which he was charged; or
- (b) has made payment in respect of two or more of the traffic violations for which he was issued a fixed penalty notice, he shall be liable to have recorded against his driving permit record, demerit points for the traffic violation that carries the highest number of demerit points and where the traffic violations carry an equal number of demerit points, the person shall be liable to have recorded against his driving permit record, demerit points for only one traffic violation.

(2) Where a person is charged for a traffic violation under this Act that involves—

- (a) a failure to comply with the indication given by a traffic light signal under section 66A; or
- (b) exceeding the specified speed limit, that person shall be liable to have recorded against his driving permit record the demerit points prescribed for both traffic violations in addition to the highest number of demerit points for any other traffic violation arising out of the same incident.

Accumulation of demerit points and disqualification

88M. (1) Where a newly licensed driver or the holder of a provisional permit accumulates seven or more demerit points within a period of twelve months from the date of issue of the driving permit or the provisional permit, the Licensing Authority shall disqualify that person from holding or obtaining a driving permit for a period of one year.

(2) Where a person who holds a driving permit for more than twelve months, accumulates within a period of three years—

- (a) ten or more but less than fourteen demerit points, the Licensing Authority shall disqualify that person from holding or obtaining a driving permit for a period of six months;
- (b) fourteen or more but less than twenty demerit points, the Licensing Authority shall disqualify that person from holding or obtaining a driving permit for a period of one year; or
- (c) twenty or more demerit points, the Licensing Authority shall disqualify that person from holding or obtaining a driving permit for a period of two years.

(3) The Licensing Authority shall, before disqualifying a person under subsection (2), give that person notice in writing of its intention to do so, and shall specify a date not less than fourteen days after the date of the notice, upon which the suspension shall be made and call upon the person to show cause why he should not be disqualified.

(4) Where a person fails to show cause under subsection (3) and the Licensing Authority after taking into consideration any facts in mitigation, decides to disqualify that person from holding or obtaining a driving permit, the Authority shall forthwith, in writing, notify that person of the disqualification.

(5) A disqualification imposed under this section shall not take effect until the expiration of fourteen days after the Licensing Authority has informed the person of the disqualification.

(6) Where a person has been disqualified from holding or obtaining a driving permit under this section, that person shall, within fourteen days of being informed of the disqualification, surrender his driving permit to the Licensing Authority.

(7) A person who fails to surrender his driving permit to the Licensing Authority as required under subsection (6), commits an offence and is liable to a fine of five thousand dollars and further disqualification for an additional period of one year.

(8) Where the disqualification period under this section expires, all demerit points recorded against the driving permit record of the person shall be expunged.

(9) A person who is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driving permit under this section may, within fourteen days of the receipt of the notice under subsection (4), appeal to a Court of competent jurisdiction against that decision and the decision of that Court shall be final.

(10) For the purposes of subsection (1), “newly licensed driver” means a person who is the holder of a driving permit for a period of twelve months or less from the date of issue.

Reissue of driving permit after dis-qualification 88N. (1) A driving permit suspended by a Court or by the Licensing Authority shall, during the period of suspension, be of no effect.

(2) A person whose driving permit is suspended, or who is declared by a Court or by the Licensing Authority to be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driving permit, shall, during the period of suspension or disqualification, not apply to the Licensing Authority to have his permit reissued unless the period of disqualification has expired or is removed under section 88M(8).

(3) A person who is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driving permit may be reissued with a driving permit by the Licensing Authority where he—

- (a) participates in a driver’s rehabilitation programme approved by the Licensing Authority;
- (b) passes a driving test; and
- (c) pays the prescribed fee for the reissue of the driving permit.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable to a penalty of ten thousand dollars.

Demerit points to be expunged after two years 88O. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where demerit points have been recorded against the driving permit record of a person and two continuous years have elapsed without additional demerit points being recorded, the demerit points recorded against that person's driving permit record shall be expunged.

(2) Where a person is disqualified by an order of a Court from holding or obtaining a driving permit, any demerit points recorded against the driving permit record of that person shall be expunged.

(3) The Licensing Authority shall have responsibility for calculating the two-year period prescribed under subsection (1) and in calculating the period, shall not take into account any period of suspension or disqualification by virtue of an order of the Court or any written law.

Double
points

88P. (1) The Minister may from time to time by Order, prescribe the traffic violations specified in the First Column of the Ninth Schedule that will carry double demerit points and the period during which the imposition of the double demerit points shall apply.

(2) An Order made under subsection (1) shall be published at least five days prior to the commencement of a prescribed period in the Gazette and in at least one daily newspapers circulating in Trinidad and Tobago.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "prescribed period" means any period not exceeding ten consecutive days.

Fraudulent application for driving permit

88Q. Where a person who, under this Part, is disqualified from holding or obtaining or has been refused from obtaining a driving permit, with intent to deceive—

(a) applies for a permit; or

(b) obtains a permit,

while so disqualified, he is liable to a fine of two thousand dollars and imprisonment for six months.”.

36. Section 91 of the Act is amended— Section 91 amended
