Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago
Ministry of Public Administration and Communications

Updated Public Statement 2016 of the Ministry of Public Administration and Communications
In compliance with sections 7, 8 and 9 of The Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 1999

In accordance with Sections 7, 8 and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act, 1999 (FOIA) the Ministry of Public Administration and Communications is required by law to publish; and annually update the statements which list the documents and information generally available to the public.

The Freedom of Information Act gives members of the public: -

- (1) A legal right for each person to access information held by the Ministry of Public Administration and Communications;
- (2) A legal right for each person to have official information relating to himself /herself amended where it is incomplete, incorrect or misleading;
- (3) A legal right to obtain reasons for adverse decisions made regarding an applicant's request for information under the FOIA;
- (4) A legal right to complain to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for Judicial Review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

The following information is published with the approval of the Minister of Public Administration and Communications.

Section 7 Statements

Section 7 (1) (a) (i)
Function and structure of the Ministry of Public Administration and Communications (MPAC): -

The former Ministry of Public Administration last published its statement in June 2015 in respect of the year 2014 in accordance with Section 7 of the FOIA. This statement has been updated reflecting changes in the Ministry for the year 2015 and up to October 31, 2016.

On September 7, 2015, the Ministry's mandate was enhanced to include National Information and Communication Technology and Property Real Estate Services portfolios. The responsibility for Scholarships and Advanced Training was transferred to the Ministry of Education. Additionally, on March 17, 2016 the Ministry of Public Administration and the Ministry of Communications were consolidated into the Ministry of Public Administration and Communications (MPAC) thereby adding the portfolios for government communications and information to the mandate.

In September 2016, a Strategic Plan 2017-2020 for the MPAC was formulated and approved. The focus of MPAC is geared towards creating a public service that provides services that exceeds citizen expectations, with sound fiscal management and no redundancy.

The Mission of the MPAC is:
"Governance, Guidance and Getting it Done."

The Vision of the MPAC is:
"To become the regional expert in building a sustainable public service with good governance, ICT-driven service improvement and citizen feedback."

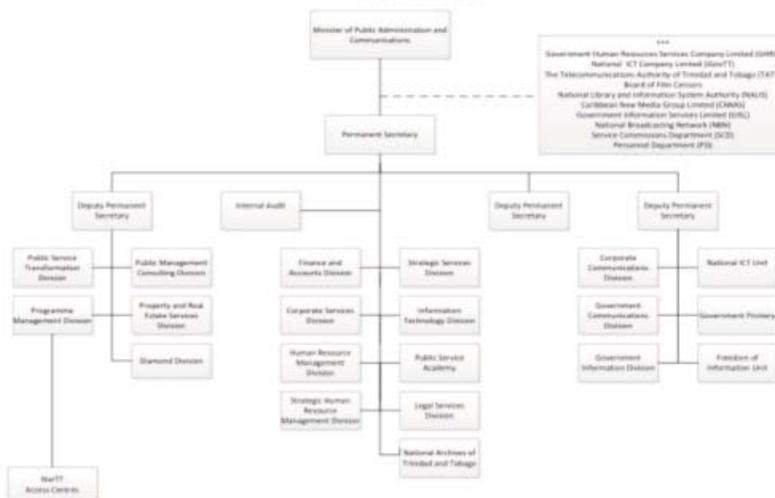

The MPAC is comprised of the following Divisions: -
 Core Divisions:

- Diamond Division
- Government Communications
- Government Printery
- Freedom of Information Unit
- Information Division
- National Archives of Trinidad and Tobago
- National Information and Communication Technology Unit
- Property and Real Estate Services Division
- Public Management Consulting Division
- Public Service Academy
- Public Service Transformation Division
- Strategic Human Resource Management Division

Support Divisions:

- Corporate Communications
- Corporate Services
- Executive Secretariat
- Finance and Accounts
- Human Resource Management
- Information Technology
- Internal Audit
- Legal Services
- Programme Management
- Strategic Services

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT 2016 OF THE MINISTRY OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
AND COMMUNICATIONS—CONTINUED

Section 7 (1) (a) (i)

Functions of the Divisions of the Ministry of Public Administration and Communications: - CORE DIVISIONS

The Diamond Division implements, manages and champions the Trinidad and Tobago Diamond Standard (TTDS), a public service certification programme. This programme has provided national certification to services within Government Ministries, Departments and Agencies within the Trinidad and Tobago Public Service, that exemplify excellence in delivering public services to citizens and other client groups. The Diamond Division guides Government Ministries, Departments and Agencies to become Diamond Standard certified by providing technical advice and assistance for service delivery enhancement. The Division is also responsible for engaging and training Assessors who conduct assessments on agencies that have registered to be Diamond Standard certified.

The Freedom of Information Unit (FOIU) was established in 2001 to administer the Freedom of Information Act, Chapter 22:02 ("FOIA"). The FOIU educates, trains, monitors and evaluates public authorities and advises members of the public as it relates to their rights and/or statutory obligations under the Freedom of Information Act.

Government Communications

The Government Communications Unit is responsible for developing, designing and implementing Government Communications Policy/Strategy. The Unit also provides expert advice to Government Ministries and Departments on Communications policies, systems, procedures, rules and regulations as well as coordinates a "whole of Government approach" to inform and motivate citizens.

The Government Printery was established to provide reliable printing, binding and related services for the government and the public. The Printery currently prints and sells official Government Publications that are required by law to the Public, including the Trinidad and Tobago Gazette, Acts of Parliament, Bills, Legal Notices and official Government Forms. The Printery also prints and/or binds books, forms and other documents to be used by Government Ministries and Departments. Other services include printing of Statutes of Parliament and Trinidad and Tobago Ballot Papers and sales to the public of Government Publications and Forms that are required by law.

Information Division (formerly Government Information Services Division) provides radio, television, newspaper and social media communications services to Government Ministries and Departments. Government Ministries and Departments use the communications created by the Information Division to provide the public timely information on government services, accomplishments, and initiatives. The Information Division also provides past published information/communications to the public or media houses based on requests.

The National Archives of Trinidad and Tobago (NATT) acquires, preserves and makes accessible thousands of records, of various formats, to the public. These include government records, immigration records, photographs, books, maps and more. Many of these records reveal our heritage and enable us as a nation to have a better understanding of Trinidad and Tobago and our ancestors. NATT influences all areas of archival processing throughout the Public Service and also provides services, such as records management and archival training, across the country but primarily to government agencies. NATT's overall objectives are to provide the public with the means to access public records, to secure information for judicial and administrative purposes, and to provide documentation for purposes of research.

National Information and Communication Technology Unit is responsible for the provision of technical and policy oversight in the area of National ICT. These include drafting of policy and plans for secure Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago (GoRTT) enterprise solutions; strategic ICT support solutions and advice to Government Ministries, Departments and Agencies; implementation oversight of GoRTT (enterprise-wide) and national ICT programmes and projects; development of GoRTT ICT technical guidelines, standards and policy; analysis, design, development and implementation of MPAC-led National ICT programmes and projects. As part of the NICT Unit, the External Relations Unit (ERU) is responsible for the effective conduct of the Ministry's external relations both overseas and domestically and it plays a key role in the development of a deliberate strategy of external engagement and communication aimed at rendering the Ministry more open and outward-looking. The ERU serves as the Ministry's focal point for engagement with external stakeholders, including regional and international ICT agencies and initiatives. Its key responsibilities include providing strategic policy recommendations and advice on international ICT developments and their impact on national interests. The ERU also acts as Secretariat to key ICT Governance Committees.

The Public Management Consulting Division provides management consulting services to the Cabinet, Government Ministries and Departments and Agencies. Its primary mandate is the review of submissions from Ministries relating to their organizational structures.

The Public Service Academy is the agency with the primary responsibility for training and development within the public service. It aims to maximise the human potential for excellence and high performance through the provision of flexible learning opportunities in collaboration with its strategic partners. The Academy is charged with the responsibility of reviewing the Training Plans of Ministries and Departments. It also administers offers of technical cooperation training from foreign governments and international agencies.

The Property and Real Estate Services Division is responsible for providing mainly office and, to a lesser extent, residential accommodation in accordance with statutory, policy and user requirements for Government Ministries and Agencies. It manages the portfolio of state-owned properties towards ensuring that these are developed, utilized and maintained to achieve maximum socio-economic returns from assets. It has an advisory role to the State on property matters.

The Public Service Transformation Division facilitates the transformation agenda for the public service of Trinidad and Tobago. PSTD engages in policy, strategy and monitoring and evaluation activities that guide and support the development and implementation of innovative solutions for improved public service governance and for the delivery of consistently high quality public goods and services.

Strategic Human Resource Management Division is responsible for coordinating a programme for the enhancement of the public service Human Resource Management (HRM) function. The Division's work is done through collaboration with the other central HRM agencies and the line HRM Divisions in the Public Service. The Division's mandate is the renewal and modernization of the HRM Architecture (policies, regulations, structures, systems, processes and people) in the Public Service.

SUPPORT DIVISIONS

Corporate Communications Division is responsible for developing and guiding the Ministry's corporate communications strategy. Its activities include internal communications, public relations, media relations, events management, branding, crisis and issues management. The Division's primary purpose is to enhance the image and reputation of the Ministry and to help establish and maintain beneficial dialogue and understanding between the Ministry and its main stakeholders both internally and externally.

Corporate Services Division provides a range of administrative and internal services (office management, file/document registry, facilities management, customer service) that support the business goals of the Ministry and contributes to its efficiency.

The Executive Secretariat (Exec Sec) is comprised of the Minister of Public Administration and Communications, the Permanent Secretary, Deputy Permanent Secretaries and the teams who assist them. The Executive Secretariat is responsible for the oversight of all strategic initiatives, projects and financial decisions within the Ministry. The Exec Sec reviews and submits Notes for the consideration of Cabinet which have been prepared by divisions and receives and distributes Cabinet Minutes for action or information within the Ministry. Amongst their various activities, the Administrative support staff in the Exec Sec coordinates all meetings and schedules of the Executive.

Finance and Accounts Division is responsible for the financial management practices and procedures of the Ministry. The Division processes payments for suppliers and payroll for employees with the attendant financial recording. The Division also coordinates the submission of budgets and prepares the Ministry's financial statements.

The Human Resource Management Division aims to enhance the Ministry's effectiveness and capability to provide excellent client and customer services by retaining and building a human resource skills/knowledge/behaviour base which can deliver on the Ministry's mandate. The Division has as its core responsibility staff issues such as hiring for contract positions, performance management, organisational development, training and development and employee relations of the Ministry's employees.

Information Technology Division is responsible for coordinating and providing strategic and operational support for internal Information and Communications Technology projects and systems.

Internal Audit ensures that there is accountability, efficiency and transparency in the financial operations of the Ministry. The Unit is responsible for audit reviews of the Ministry's activities and accounts.

Legal Services Division performs general transactional legal work and provides legal advice and support to the Ministry, its various Divisions, and other agencies which fall under its purview.

Programme Management Division is responsible for managing the Ministry's PSIP and other projects to ensure proper design, implementation and monitoring and evaluation mechanisms are in place. In addition, the Division is responsible for the management of eight (8) Start ICT Access Centres, which provide ICT access and training to rural underserved communities. The PMD was the executing agency and focal point for the eGovernment and Knowledge Brokering Programme (eGKBP) - an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) Loan Programme. The Division provided project management and oversight support for the projects under the IDB loan.

Strategic Services Division is responsible for coordinating the Ministry's strategic plan and developing various internal policies. The Division collaborates with the other Divisions in the Ministry and agencies under the purview of the Ministry to monitor and evaluate/measure performance and meet statutory reporting requirements.
